Summary : The New Chance is an organization for socially excluded youths, who want to work actively to improve their own situation, and change their behavior and general outlook on life. We help them find their own way in life to become positive, self-sufficient members of society. Our methods are based on a combination of education, support with practical problems such as housing and debt relief, behaviorial training, creating labor identity and organising sufficient care.
